Here in Billerica we're starting to feel as though these requests are getting unreasonable. We have marketing firms and other non profits submitting requests for what seems to be a marketing tactic

We rarely waive fees. Some of these requests take significant time and effort...especially when it comes to email searches. Reviewing and redacting can be a nightmare. I've gotten requests like these before and we have charged. We send them our reply with a stated cost...most of the time they don't pay it, so we don't have to complete the request. They do have the option to send it to the state if they are not happy with our response.

The last record request we received said the same thing, we responded stating that the administrative assistant would have to work after hours to pull the information and because of that we would be charging $25.00 per hour.

They dropped their request.

Hi Barbara,

Within the body of the email request it states:

If any fees are requested, they should be hereby waived, as OpenCommonwealth.org is a free, open and public journalistic community organization designed specifically to provide and empower citizen oversight of governmental operations and activities, help citizens understand how, why and where taxpayer dollars are expended, and to investigate, gather and report the facts in the online publications found on the webpages and social media accounts of OpenCommonwealth.org. OpenCommonwealth.org is a free service, is staffed only by volunteers, and all costs and expenses are borne by its creators. No person has ever paid OpenCommonwealth.org any monies, or any in-kind contributions for its reporting, or access to any of its files. It is the structural intent of OpenCommonwealth.org to maintain and persist as an absolutely free service to the entire public.

Thanks for your response Steve. I had the same results as you from my email archive search. I think all of the emails I turned up were from the Superintendents group discussion.

Nothing conclusive as well researching the unfamiliar requesting organization, etc.

I did a Google search for that # string and the first hit was a reference to a Federal Election Commission filing, the second was an ebay auction for a Durango blower motor?

I contacted the Secretary of the Commonwealth's office to get their take.

They are aware of opencommonwealth.org, a "frequent flyer," as they described.

They suggested one of these actions:

- Provide records – it is a legitimate PRR
- Respond with an estimate of the cost to provide the PRR
- Use one of the exemptions outlined in this document.

I will also run it by the town clerk's office to see if they have received it.

Thanks for your response Steve. I had the same results as you from my email archive search. I think all of the emails I turned up were from the Superintendents group discussion.

Nothing conclusive as well researching the unfamiliar requesting organization, etc.

I did a Google search for that # string and the first hit was a reference to a Federal Election Commission filing, the second was an ebay auction for a Durango blower motor?

I contacted the Secretary of the Commonwealth's office to get their take.

They are aware of opencommonwealth.org, a "frequent flyer," as they described.

They suggested one of these actions:

- Provide records – it is a legitimate PRR
- Respond with an estimate of the cost to provide the PRR
- Use one of the exemptions outlined in this document.

I will also run it by the town clerk's office to see if they have received it.
